

The purpose of this award is to recognize demonstrated excellence by a REALTOR® in the Code of Ethics, including knowledge, practice, and service to HRRRA.

All entries must be received at the HRRRA office no later than November 15, 2011. The award will be presented at the Installation Luncheon and Awards Ceremony on December 9, 2011.

Selection panels for each category will narrow down the nominations to three. The entire membership will then be given the opportunity to vote on the three nominations in each category. The majority vote will count as one vote in each of the selection panels during the final selection process.

Name of Nominee: _____ Title: _____

Name of Company: _____

Please attach the nominee's resume using the following guidelines:

- 1) REALTOR® who served on Professional Standards or Grievance Committees or service as a Mediator.
- 2) Evidence of ethical conduct provided by clients, peers, or managing broker.
- 3) Relevant REALTOR® and civic accomplishments of the nominees.
- 4) Nominee must be a member in good standing.

Nominee must hold an active primary HRRRA membership in good standing. REALTORS® who were suspended or terminated during the award year or who have outstanding or past due charges, fees, assessments, or dues with the Association at time of application do not meet the "good standing" requirement.

Any REALTOR® ever found in violation of the Code of Ethics within any NAR jurisdiction will be ineligible to receive this award.
